

God has established a Divine Order of Kingdom Authority based on gender. (2-9)

1. God designed and created gender.
2. God loves both genders.
3. God decided your gender.
4. God has purpose for your gender.
5. God wants you to understand and follow His design for gender.

The Divine Design of Men

The Divine Design of Women

When God's Kingdom Authority is followed there is great harmony and blessing. (10-15)

God's Word teaches Kingdom Authority for all people both inside and outside of the church. (16)

Questions for Discussion:

What are some of the common distortions of the Divine Order for genders in our culture today?

What do those embracing these views base their beliefs on?

Are you guilty of believing any of these distortions?

What are some of the benefits of following the Divine Order for gender?

What would it look like for you to embrace the Divine Order for gender beginning this week?