Questions for Discussion:

Who other than Jesus Christ are those presently in authority over you in your life?

What is the basis for their authority over you?

What would happen if you disobeyed them?

What implications does this have for our obedience to Jesus Christ?

What Christian has made the greatest impact in your life?

How did he or she impact you?

What can you learn from this for you in turn discipling others?

Can you name at least one person in your life you that could pass on to them something from the Bible that you have learned? Who is that?

Why do you think some Christians don't disciple others?

What is the significance of Jesus Christ being with you always for you making disciples?
